NURSES REPORT FOR DUTY AT ARMY CAMPS.

At Camp Buell, Mrs. Carrie F. Stone, of Paris, is Day Head Nurse in the Armory Hospital, with forty-six cases of influenza under her charge. Miss Clennie Lusby and Mrs. N. A. Moore, both of Paris, are assisting on the Second Floor of the Hospital Section. Call after call is still being made for not only nurses, but also for those who are willing to assist in the kitchen proper or in the diet kitchen.

Mrs. Moore and Miss Lusby are doing voluntary work at Camp Buell as nurses, with no salary attached. The trained nurses at the institution are being paid at the rate of $35 per month. They are comfortably housed in Patterson Hall, at the University of Kentucky, and are doing their bit, each and every one, unselfishly, for the alleviation of suffering and distress among the boys in the hospital. Mrs. Moore and Miss Lusby are on night duty. Reports from Camp Buell yesterday stated that there are about three hundred cases at present, with the situation well under control.

Upon her arrival in Paris last September from Graham Springs, where she had spent the summer in charge of the culinary department and dining rooms of the Graham Springs Hotel, Mrs. Carl Crawford registered on September 25, for war work activity. Her name was first sent to the New York headquarters, then to Washington. Last week she received notice that she had been accepted. Mrs. Crawford will leave Paris on next Saturday for Louisville, where she has been assigned to take charge of the Y. W. C. A. Cafeteria as House Director.

NERVY THIEF PILFERS PARIS WOMAN'S TRUNKS.

Lexington has some nervy thieves who are no respecters of individuals. A few days ago Mrs. N. A. Moore and Miss Clennie Lusby, both of Paris, who were en route to Lexington as volunteer nurses at Camp Buell, sent their trunks ahead. While the trunks were in the interurban station in Lexington some nervy thief or thieves broke open Mrs. Moore's trunk and made away with her clothing, uniforms, kimono and other valuable articles of apparel she had packed for use at the Hospital. Upon calling for her trunk the theft was discovered. The Lexington police were notified and after a long search arrested two negro women who were parading the street attired in Mrs. Moore's clothing.

Before the clothing had been recovered and returned to Mrs. Moore, she was compelled to return to Paris and procure another outfit, not deeming it advisable to use the clothing the women had stolen.

FIREBUGS HAVE A GRUDGE AGAINST LEBUS!

For the third time this month firebugs seemingly with a grudge against Clarence LeBus, have applied the torch, figuratively speaking, to his property in Cynthiana. On October 1 a large warehouse and part of another, was destroyed, by fire of evident incendiary origin, entailing a loss of about $34,000, with about $10,000 insurance. The first of the week a large dwelling on his Edgewater farm burned the property loss amounting to several thousand dollars, partly insured. Friday afternoon the sale and feed stable of Smith & Turney, on Pike street, and the three-story ironclad LeBus warehouse in the rear of the stable were destroyed by fire. The buildings were in the heart of the city, and in a closely-built district, which was threatened with destruction.

The property loss in Friday's fire was estimated by Mr. LeBus as being close to $13,000, with no insurance. Representatives from the State Fire Marshal's office and detectives are investigating the fires, the origin of which are still shrouded in mystery.

Thinking the big fire would get beyond the control of the local firemen the Cynthiana authorities appealed to Mayor E. B. January, of Paris, for help. The auto fire truck with a big supply of hose, was sent instantly to Cynthiana, in charge of Fire Chief Lancaster and a detail of firemen. They made the trip in thirty-seven minutes. Upon arriving at the scene they found the Cynthiana fire department had the fire under control, and returned to Paris. During their short stay in Cynthiana the firemen were taken in charge by business men and ladies and shown greatly-appreciated courtesies.
